

Addendum 1 Biblical Marriages

Objections: Some people write to me coming out with blanket statements in opposition such as that "The Father is not teaching them this" or that "this is of the devil" or worst still "this will destroy your testimony" however not one scripture is cited against what Torah states about Biblical Patriarchal marriages. Blanket statements are quite happily accepted of Abraham being the father of our faith but it's ignored that he was a Patriarch in Patriarchal marriage system. The ironical stance of many Christians and allegedly Torah observant Messianics is comical who claim to be following the faith of Abraham but reject his lifestyle which was Patriarchal. Hello anyone listening?

Objection: The Father is not teaching them this.

Answer: First of all the Father can only teach you what you are mature enough to handle so He will never overload you with the whole truth since you might stumble at the tiniest bit of truth. Clearly you are stumbling with your gentile cultural values versus the real Torah values. If you are still feeding on milk then how can you handle meat? Now ask yourself this if you are a Torah + Messiah believer, then how much did it take for you to give up your bacon in the western lands or even in the east if you ate it as some do? How much stumbling block was that when people with knowledge from the Scriptures came and said don't eat the unclean foods. It could have been crabs, lobster, shrimps or some other food like maybe even horses are consumed in France. So to say the Father is not teaching you this does not make a Torah truth an untruth but shows that you may need to mature up a lot more yet. Can your ego accept this?

The other thing could be that you are considerably in older years of your life and you never intend to get married or do not see the need to then one must ask why do you care whether it is one marriage, two or none? The only thing the Father expects from you is an Amen to His commandments just like Abraham was vindicated for being faithful with many wives and hard Torah truths and no he did not lie when he said Sarah is his sister which is something a brother told me a while ago but I had to show him that this is simple Churchianity nonsense and that the Torah speaks of him in a very favourable position and maybe he should really consult Torah next time he speaks and then I showed him what YHWH said about him and what Abraham's lineage was and how Sarah was born and was really his half sister coming from the second wife of Terach.

YHWH gave an incredible testimony for Abraham as follows.

Genesis 26:5 because Abraham obeyed My voice and guarded My ordinance, My commandments, My statutes, and My Torot.¹

Is this the type of testimony you desire then start being Torah obedient.

Objection: This is of the devil and you are doing his work.

¹ Abraham was a very good Torah keeper and YHWH gave a true report on behalf of Abraham keeping His Torah teachings.

Answer: I am quite amused at this one since the ones saying this reveals to me have no understanding of Torah laws, or the Devil and how he has perverted Patriarchy to enforced serial monogamy which is pagan through and through and accepted by most Christians yet is of the Devil. So tell me where is the Devil working? How about in your Churches? Many people like this work from ignorance as were people in the first century who accused Yahushua of casting out demons by the power of Beelzebub.

Objection: This will destroy your testimony!

Answer: Now they have decided to sit in the Most High's seat. My testimony will remain until our restoration to be in the Torah.

The whole of scripture alongside being called Tenach, Nabim, Ketubim is also called Eduth meaning testimony or witness. Who's testimonies is the Tanakh? The Master YHWH of course and the Patriarchs and prophets of our people Y'sra'el. So my testimony or witness MUST be of Him so that He is esteemed and it is for Him and never for me. Any Torah truth will always shine through no matter how difficult for us it may be.

One famous Rabbi said "Truth is buried in the grave" and rightly so because lies are rampant in the world and accepted as truth one such is serial monogamy and the other that the chosen people are Caucasians in Y'sra'el when in fact the chosen people are the black people amongst us who came out of the slavery, the Negroes.

The criteria for accepting Truth should never be whether I like it or not or does my spouse like it or not but simply is it from the Father and anything that is written in Scriptures I attest to being from the Father (Deut 28:1). We must obey his voice the Torah.

2 Samuel 12:8 And I gave you your master's house, and the wives of your master into your lap, and gave you the house of Y'sra'el and of Yahudah; and if that had been too little, I would moreover have given to you more.

So who gave King David many wives? The Father in heaven or King David's own heart?

I know some truths are hard to practice simply because they bring in unique problems and logistical issues within themselves and it may be that it's not your calling so why worry. How many of you are asked to be martyred? How many of you stand at the front lines to be the first one in line to be killed hands up all who do?

I know this is not for everyone doubt many of you are willing to go on the front lines in Pakistan and Afghanistan and proclaim your faith openly. Some of you have never left the lands you were born in and don't even have a passport. I know many ex-Muslims are selected simply by the mindset we were brought up with such as dying for Allah. However difficult martyrdom might be but this is one truth many people would reject it but it is a requirement for some of us (Psalm 116:15 Precious in the sight of YHWH is the death of his kedoshim (saints)) to be hacked to death but not for all so since we are not afraid to die then why should we be afraid to practice other truths such as biblical polygyny. Our practicing of truth only requires me to know it is Torah law and that is enough. I do not need any approval.

Admitted you may be macho behind your computer keyboards but how many of you are willing to wear my shoes and travel to the radical regions of Pakistan with prevalent suicide bombings and some of the other places like Israel and the Palestinian territories where you only see yourself as expendable for YHWH's esteem and witness. Are you willing to make that kind of stand? If you are not then why write vitriolic hatred against us who make a stand for ALL of YHWH's truth? You only bring you respect down in my and other's eyes who know TRUTH and you destroy your testimony, to utter lashon hara (evil speech) against His chosen servants.

In the end patriarchal marriages actually helps 80% of the world cultures come to know truth and the Muslims are patriarchal people, it helps them to come to terms with truths such as that this is Torah based and not Qura'nic. A Muslim Sheikh with twenty wives is likely to become a Torah based believer more so then a Christian because he is not about to divorce his nineteen wives to appease you or your denominations and at the end of the day why should he espouse to Roman Catholic dogma that the protestant churches are aligned with today. I admit I don't aspire to taking sixteen wives but Truth must be told and practiced and I would rather stand with ALL truth then half truth Christians do sorry.

So for me as an ex-Muslim a faithful Y'sra'elite the God of Y'sra'el I make the best model for those Muslims who are Patriarchal and I have a lot to gain then to lose. The sad part is that I lost not one but two families and I am willing to lose another family for Him and I also admit that I may lose some of you as friends but the reality is that I would never meet most of you so my loss though regrettable is minimum but my gain is eternal because I stand as a living testimony to YHWH's laws penned 3500 years ago for all nations especially to the 1.6 billion Muslims who too will be given favour for not being in idolatry unlike Christians. HalleluYah.

It was not so from the beginning

We often hear the term thrown around that rebbe Yahushua made in the gospels "that it was not so from the beginning", to mean we are to be one man and one woman only (Akhad in marriage) not one man with several women etc.

Let me quote the full verse.

Matthew 19:8 He said to them, Musa because of the hardness of your hearts allowed you to put away your wives:² but from the beginning it was not so.

This is breaking the back of scriptures and misquotation that usually is done by Christendom trying to derive laws out of something where no law is given.

Yahushua was not demanding monogamy nor showing it in Matthew 19:8 but showing fickle "divorce" on demand was forbidden and not all divorces.

² The word is plural because we are allowed to have plural marriages as our lifestyle. and showing by analogy or Val 'v'chomer (The seven rules of Hillel) that there was no divorce allowed since marriage is a covenant until husband's death, while in our society we have divorce on demand by the wife who refuses to agree with anything the husband has to say on any touchy subjects not just plural marriage but to take that to mean plural marriage is not allowed is quite comical at least. Rebbe Yahushua is not my authority but the Torah is which permits plural marriage.

Exodus 21:10 If he takes another wife, he shall not diminish her food, her clothing, and her marriage rights.³

Now I see why the Muslims laugh at Christians and don't take them seriously at all when terms like these are thrown around without any understanding.

If plural marriage "was not so from the beginning", meant that YHWH made a law in the garden for monogamy then why isn't everyone walking around NAKED? Well didn't He show the ideal state to be NAKED? Plural marriages have always been in YHWH's mind as His perfect will since YHWH has only ONE will and not two the Christian model of man then "it was not so for everyone to practice plural marriages" because many men are immature and cannot handle one let alone two or three wives. Each man has to make the call of what He is called to do in the Y'sra'elite community, for some it will be monogamy till their death and for others it will be Patriarchal living and no man is under the law (man made laws) to be restrained otherwise as long as they walk in obedience to YHWH.

Rabbi Simon Altaf Hakohen

³ A man is allowed to marry two wives as long as he promised to take care of the first wife's food, clothing and housing needs. In order for him to take a second wife he would have to do the same for the second. The model in Torah was for the second wife to have a separate tent meaning another house in our society today. He could not take her into the same house and expect the first to accept this as the normal circumstance. Women are very territorial creatures and no woman will allow the second wife to come live at the family home. Whoever will do this is only asking for disaster to befall upon him. In Gen 12:8, Abraham setup Sarah's tent first then his own, you will not find this in the English because the idea is conveyed in the Hebrew text. Read footnote Gen 12:8.
