YHWH – The four letter sacred name of the Creator

Torah – First five books of the Bible written by Moses

Abraham had four wives listed as follows:

- 1 Keturah
- 2 Sarah
- 3 Mashek
- 4 Hagar

Sara was the name of an African tribe so Sarah was titled Sar-i, Abraham's wife was his half sister/cousin/patrilineal niece, her real name according to the Targum of Jonathan was Yskah however Sarah and Yskah are two different women.

Sarah is not a name, she was given the title Sara, which later was changed by YHWH to Sara-h by appending the heh she became Sar-ah. It was common custom and is still common custom that is strictly followed in the Muslims today to marry patrilineal nieces or cousins. There is nothing wrong with it and it is perfectly acceptable according to the Torah to wed your patrilineal niece or cousin.

In ancient Hebrew the name Sarah does not mean a "princess", this is only in rabbinic modernism applying modern tenants of the modern Hebrew language. Today's Hebrew is not like the ancient Hebrew.

In Ancient script the letters sin, resh and yud meant "A bright distinguished bird." Note in the ancient Egyptian culture it was very common to see birds, cats, dogs, and other such animals as symbols. The same is actually true in ancient Hebrew but since it was lost to the Hebrew people more research needs to be done in this area. Also in ancient Iraq (Babylon) the lion was a common symbol. Each culture had its special ancient symbols.

Abraham's wife Sarah was a fair black woman hence the term/title etc plus she was the ruling matriarch in her tribe. Many questions arise from the text in Genesis. If Abraham was already married to Keturah and had children at fifty then why does Abraham say "I remain childless" (Gen 15:2)? How come the scholars have never addressed this issue?

The real Hebrew language was a monosyllable language just like the Egyptian script and did not originally have two or three letter roots in its makeup while this definitely evolved over time this is simply the development of Hebrew from the ancient cultures. The second letter or the third letter only gave more meaning to the first letter so whenever you decipher an Ancient Hebrew word always look at the first character. The meaning is embedded in that. Here is a prime example.

The Letter Yod or Yud.  It is the picture of an eye. So what would be the meaning of this ancient character on its own?

The idea of the all seeing eye is not new but ancient. The meaning would be simply the opposite of not seeing. So if we can see what do we have? We have light, vision, brightness but if we cannot see we have darkness, un-illuminated, no vision. These are binary opposites. The ancient Hebrews were of a binary culture. Light/dark, sun/moon, earth/sky, man/woman, hot/cold etc, etc. Hence the meaning of the Yod is "LIGHT."

In fact the above truth is hidden from many and this is the reason why the Jehovah's witnesses peddle their fake "Jesus" who is an angel. The Christian Christ man/God who is also white and a rosy looking Slav Blonde actually the image of the illegitimate son of Pope Alexander called Borgia, look at the house of Borgia link below. He is not the Messiah nor God.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/House_of_Borgia

Are you seeing Borgia in your visions?

The Christian version at least has the correct divine attributes but wrong everything else and also in the Christian perverted trinity we have three He's. Unless I am mistaken and I know that a man cannot produce offspring from another man. The Holy Spirit the Ruach Ha Kadesh is feminine the Mother and not a He.

It should be quite clear to all of us who hold any understanding of the ancient Hebrew and the culture that Sarah our matriarch who was Lot's sister and Lot is an Egyptian name, note Nim-lot an Egyptian name and Nim-rod are similar. Nim-lot was an ancient High Priest in Thebes. Thebes is not the original name of the Egyptian city and is a later derivative.

Encyclopedia Britannica

The ancient name of Thebes was Wase, or Wo'se. The nome (province) of Wase, the fourth of Upper Egypt, is known to have existed from the 4th dynasty onward. The earliest monuments that have survived at Thebes proper date from the 11th dynasty (2081–1939 bce), when the local nomarchs (governors) united Egypt under their rule. From this time Thebes frequently served as the royal capital of Egypt and was called Nowe, or Nuwe (“City of Amon”), named for its chief god. The Greek name Thebes (Thebai) may have been derived from Taope, the ancient Egyptian name for ... (100 of 3150 words)

Nim-rod the son of Cush (Ethiopian/Sudanese, Nubian) was related to Abraham’s family. These were black African people who traveled from West Africa to the Northern Turkic Hemisphere by conquering nations. This is how both Abraham’s father Terach and Nimrod ended up working for each other, clans followed each other. Nimrod’s brother Rammah was left ruling in West Africa, which included rule in Eastern Arabia today known as Saudi Arabia. Africa had an amazing great culture nothing seen in our modern times, they far surpassed it. The reason why the Caucasians quickly erased black history was due to two reasons one the curses of the Torah for Torah violations that fell on the ancient Y’sra’el and two the hatred seen among the white people of today or people of colour whether they be Mexican, Latin American or some other nationals for what we call racism. Yes it does exist in all parts of the corporate and non corporate Caucasian world. This is not to say it does not exist amongst the blacks but it is a lot more severe in some Caucasian races. When people like Napoleon’s soldiers saw the Sphinx of a black man they could not resist but to shoot it down. How could a black man be painted so great. The Egyptian pyramids were made to look like made by Indian looking Egyptians while this is not an accurate picture of ancient Pharaohs.

The bright and best men of Y’sra’el were made to look like white ever asked why? Abraham, Isaac, Ishmael, Moses, Joshua, King David, King Solomon were great black men. King Solomon a man of colour surpassed all the wisdom of Egypt and all other nations put together. This reality has irked so many people that he is no longer painted in his original colour but as a white Caucasian.

Just look at ancient Egypt. Nimrod built a tower that I have not seen even built in modern times to the same height and breadth so think about it before you run down ancient cultures. Granted that he built a tower in defiance to God but the modern towers in America are nothing in comparison to what he built and if you think the Americans are building towers to glorify God sorry this is not true. The Arabs may not have the true God but when they build towers they have their Allah in mind while Europe and America have become countries where atheism seems to be prospering and God is left in the backseat so to speak.

Even the ubiquitous dollar bill has the symbol of the free masons “All seeing eye” on the pyramid on the back of the dollar bill so what is the point of putting “in God we trust” on it if at the same time you entertain free masonry and occultism? Have we not realized yet that we are destined to fall if we mix worship with idolatry? Then which God? Mammon?

Even the ego today represents similar to Nimrod to say that I can defy you the Creator and build great structures. I know it may be hard to admit our mistakes but realities are very different when viewed from cold facts on the ground. We must look at our self and do some soul searching to see if what we are doing is magnifying God or seeking to exalt our self as great men and women. Even the Brazilian people who built the image of the western Jesus had the Creator in mind but at least they wanted to represent who they worshipped. In fact this is proof that ethnic people think very differently. They always have behind their minds how to honor their creator. So these people would only do what they know best and one cannot blame them for erecting images when they know not better. In ancient Egypt people built big images to their deities and to their heroes.

Ancient Egyptian people were black Africans with the same kind of hair that eventually was also found on Moses. Surprised, but you should not be if you were really seeking after the truth.. I would not expect to see any different. A man of wooly hair. No he was not Caucasian and he certainly did not come out of the Zagreb mountains.

See you in to part 2 later.

May the El of Y'sra'el guide you and increase those of you who obey His Torah.
