

HOW TO DEAL WITH DISAPPOINTMENTS... RABBI SIMON ALTAF HAKOHEN

Written 28 July 2018

All quotes from the Hidden Truths Hebraic Scrolls otherwise indicated!

Many of us rely on relations and friends but when they don't meet our expectations we end up disappointed.

How do we deal with Disappointments?

The answer is so simple that you will be surprised about it.

Don't have expectations in people; it's having the expectations that cause us the disappointments. So the solution is not to have them.

It's the small things in life that affect us so much. You live in your home, your spouse puts the remote on the left side rather than the right, and it irritates us.

She leaves the cup in the sink and doesn't wash it while you put your cup in the sink and wish it. It's the small things that cause the bigger fights.

You go out and you get stuck in traffic or someone honked his horn to you because you were too close to their car or they thought you are going to hit them.

Psalm 30:5....

Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.

There are times we go through difficult situations but when that time ends you will be grateful that you went through that time in which God allowed you to learn important lessons of life.

You will walk away being grateful.

How would we know how good life is unless you did not go through difficult times.

Romans 8:28

And we know that all things work together for good to them that love Elohim, to them who are called according to his purpose.

So next time the only person you should keep expectations from is God alone as God never fails us but people fail us.

Qorintyah Alef 1:9

YHWH is trustworthy, by whom you were called to the fellowship of his Son Yahushua The Messiah our Master.

Another way to put this verse is God never fails us.

I hope that from now on you adopt this attitude in your life and you will do well.
